HENRY KROHNE
IS DEAD AT 69

Well-Known Merchant Tailor Had Been Ill Six Weeks

Henry Krohne, well known merchant tailor, died at his home, 204 Saratoga street, yesterday after an illness of about six weeks.

He was in his 70th year and was born in Posen, Germany, Aug. 27, 1853. He came to this country on March 4, 1870, and lived in New York for a short time before coming to this city. He worked for his uncle, the late Henry Green, in the latter's tailoring establishment on North Main street and in 1873 he started in business for himself. His shop was in the Infantry building on South Main street for some time and then he moved to 19 South Main street, where for 21 years he catered to Brown University students. A few years ago he moved the shop to 191 Broad street, where he had been ever since.

Mr. Krohne was a charter member of St. George Lodge, Knights of Pythias, and had held many important offices in the order. He was also a member of Franklin Lodge, I. O. O. F., Redwood Lodge, F. and A. M., and the congregation of Temple Beth-El.

Mr. Krohne is survived by his widow, a daughter, Miss Selma J. Krohne and two brothers, who live in this city and another who is a resident of New York. Funeral services will be held at the family residence Wednesday afternoon, Rabbi Samuel M. Gup of Temple Beth-El officiating. The burial will be at the Cemetery of the Congregation Sons of Israel and David and members of Redwood Lodge will conduct services at the grave.

HENRY KROHNE, VETERAN MERCHANT TAILOR, DEAD

Prominent Fraternal Worker Had Been Ill Six Weeks.

Henry Krohne, for nearly half a century one of the best-known merchant tailors in this city, and prominently identified with various fraternal orders and with Jewish philanthropic and religous activities, died at his home, 204 Saratoga street, yesterday morning from complications, after an illness of about six weeks. He was in his 70th year, and is survived by his widow, Mrs. Belle M. Krohne; one daughter, Miss Selma J. Krohne, and two brothers in this city and one in New York.

Mr. Krohne was born in Posen, Germany, Aug. 27, 1853, and received his education in his native place. He came to America on March 4, 1870, but after a short time in New York moved to this city, where he accepted a position with his uncle, the late Henry Green, who for several years conducted a tailoring establishment on North Main street.

In 1873 Mr. Krohne started in business for himself and for a short time was located in the old Infantry building on Dorrance street, removing to 19 South Main street, where he remained for 21 years, a majority of his customers being students from Brown University. A few years ago he removed to 191 Broad street, where he has since been located.

When St. George Lodge, Knights of Pythias, was instituted in 1873, Mr. Krohne was one of the charter members and was installed in one of the appointive offices, advancing successively until he became the Chancellor Commander and a member of the Grand Lodge of the Domain of Rhode Island, wherein he held minor offices for several years. He was one of the members of St. George Lodge that transferred to Palestine Lodge No. 2 when the former was absorbed some years ago. Next October he would have attained his 50th year as a Pythian. He was for 43 years a member of Franklin Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and was a life member of Redwood Lodge, F. and A. M., having been raised in the first class of candidates initiated by that lodge in 1879. He was a constant and regular attendant of all his lodges.

Mr. Krohne was a member of the congregation of the Temple Beth-El and was one of the ways and means committee in charge of the erection of the present place of worship on Broad street.

Funeral services will be conducted at his late home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rabbi Samuel M. Gup of Temple Beth-El. The officers of Redwood Lodge will later conduct the Masonic committal service at the Cemetery of the Congregation Sons of Israel and David, Reservoir avenue.
