KRONICK, Flora

Woonsocket
P.J. & 5-10-1997

FLORA F. KRONICK, 99, of 1101 N.E. 191st St., North Miami Beach, Fla., died yesterday at Aventura Hospital and Medical Center in North Miami Beach. She was the widow of Charles E. Kronick, owner of the Blackinton Oil Co. in North Adams, Mass.

Born in Woonsocket, a daughter of the late Samuel and Lena (Brenner) Schlansky, she lived in North Miami Beach for 21 years, previously living in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Kronick was president of Congregation Beth Israel Sisterhood for two years, Hadassah, and the North Adams Women's Chapter of B'nai Brith, Western Division. She was woman of the year in 1971 at the North Adams Congregation Beth Israel Sisterhood. She was a volunteer at the North Adams Hospital gift shop, and a life member of Hadassah.

She leaves a stepson, Lewis Kronick of North Miami Beach; a niece, Ethel Mendeloff of Norwood, Mass.; two stepgrandsons and a great-stepgrandson.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in the Congregation B'nai Israel. Burial will be in B'nai Israel Cemetery, Woonsocket.
