OBITUARY

KUNSTLER
Rose

The Providence Sunday Journal, March 26, 1978 N B-15

Rose Kunstler

Organizer of Volunteer Services at Miriam Hospital, pharmacist

PROVIDENCE — Mrs. Rose Kunstler, formerly of 670 N. Main St., died yesterday at the Charlesgate Nursing Center. She was the widow of Eric Kunstler.

Mrs. Kunstler was a graduate of the Rhode Island College of Pharmacy, now the University of Rhode Island College of Pharmacy, in 1926.

She was chief pharmacist at the former Miriam Hospital on Parade Street. She then was a pharmacist at the former Biltmore Hotel Pharmacy, and was the organizer and first director of the Volunteer Services at the present Miriam Hospital.

Mrs. Kunstler was a member of Temple Emanu-El. She was also a member of the Rhode Island Pharmaceutical Association and received a 50-year certificate from the University of Rhode Island College of Pharmacy.

She was a member of the Providence chapters of Hadassah and B'nai B'rith, the Providence Jewish Community Center, the Miriam Hospital Women's Association and the Providence Golden Agers.

Born in New York, a daughter of the late Philip and Adele (Schlosberg) Goldsmith, she lived in Providence for 65 years.

She leaves two brothers, Maurice Goldsmith of Swampscott, Mass., James Goldsmith of Providence, and a sister, Mrs. Esther Press of Cranston.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at the Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery.