David L. Kusinitz

Jul. 3, 1953 - Oct. 9, 2012

David L. Kusinitz, age 59, passed away Tuesday, October 9th after a courageous battle with cancer; beloved husband of Ann, loving father of Zoe, son of Emily and Bernard, brother to Barry and Alan, dear friend to many. David received Bachelor's Degrees in Government and in History from Clark University and continued his education at University of Chicago where he received a Master's Degree in Political Science. David pursued a career in information technologies, forming a company which contracted extensively to the financial services industry. David's first love, however, was teaching, sharing his excitement for history and Chinese studies with hundreds of students throughout the years. His wit, whimsy and keen intelligence will be missed by all who knew him. Services will be held on October 20th at 3:00 pm at Zimmerman Harnett Funeral Home in Forest Park.

I tried looking it up. It looks like it pleyad at a bunch of festivals all over California, Texas, Canada, etc. and then: ARC Entertainment, the US distributor for the film, announced on July 5, 2011 that Bunraku will be available on Video on Demand on September 1, 2011 and in theaters on September 30, 2011.MPM might wanna add that to this article. I have to say, though, it's gotta be a limited theatrical release if VOD is getting it a whole month earlier.

David Swain - Oct. 23, 2012

I deeply regret that we did not have more time together, but will remember David's willingness to lend a helping hand, his great wit and humor, and his courage. I feel that my life is richer for having known him.
