ADELE LANDESBERG, 62, of Rockville Centre, N.Y., and formerly of Cranston, a retired psychiatric nurse, died Tuesday at home.

Born in Providence, she was a daughter of Harriet (Glazer) Landesberg and the late Leo Landesberg.

A graduate of the University of Rhode Island, where she received her bachelor of science degree in 1962, she went on to study at New York University, where she received master's degree in psychiatric nursing in 1967.

Ms. Landesberg began her career at Hillside Psychiatric Hospital, in Glen Oaks, N.Y., and later moved to Coney Island Hospital, where she worked until retiring in 2001 as assistant vice president of the hospital's University Group Medical Associates. She also had functioned as administrator of the hospital's Department of Behavioral Health.

She was a member of Sigma Delta Tau, the international nursing society, in which she had held many offices, and had also been active in the New York Nursing Association, District 14.

Ms. Landesberg had served on the former Brooklyn Association of Mental Health, later the Brooklyn Mental Health Council, as an officer and later as chairperson; on Brooklyn District Board H of the Health Systems Agency of New York City, for which she held many offices, including that of chairperson; on the Southern Brooklyn Health Council; and on the Surrogate Decision Making Committee of the State of New York's Commission on Quality of Care for the Mentally Disabled.

She was a member of the board of directors for her cooperative residence.

Besides her mother, she leaves a brother, Melvin Landesberg of Medfield, Mass.; three nieces; and five grandnieces and grandnephews.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at 10 a.m. at the Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
