OBITUARIES

Anna Landman

PROVIDENCE — Anna Landman, 86, of the Jewish Home for the Aged, 99 Hillside Ave., co-owner with her husband of Landman's Liquors, Newport, died Saturday at Miriam Hospital. She was the widow of Leo Landman.

Born in Romania, a daughter of the late Mendel and Pearl (David) Schmelzer, she migrated to New York while in her teens.

Shortly before World War II, she traveled to Europe to visit her parents, met and married her husband, and returned with him to this country and settled in Newport.

Mrs. Landman was a member of the Newport chapter of Hadassah, the Jewish National Fund and the Ladies Auxiliary of Touro Synagogue. During her last year, she participated in educational programs of the Leisure Club of Temple Emanuel.

She leaves a son, Owen B. Landman of Pawtucket; a brother, Dr. Norbert Schmelzer of Bloomington, Ill., and a sister, Dora Hayling of Liverpool, England.

The funeral service will be held today at 1 p.m. at the Hoffman Memorial Chapel, Fowler Avenue, Newport. Burial will be in Beth Olam Cemetery, Middletown.
