LANSBERG
RICHARD

JVH 9-15-2006

Richard Lansberg, 86

NORTH KINGSTOWN — Richard F. Lansberg, 86, died Sept. 2. He was the husband of Esther (Hakim) Lansberg. They were married for 54 years. Born in Holland, a son of the late Maurits and Rebecca (Fresco) Lansberg, he had lived in North Kingstown for 17 years, previously residing in Maryland. He was a Holocaust survivor.

Mr. Lansberg was a movie projectionist for 40 years and also worked for Northrop Corporation for 25 years, retiring in 1988.

He loved classical music and anything sweet.

He leaves three daughters, Albertina Warren of East Greenwich; Sonia Lansberg of Fullerton, Cal.; and Helene Rudowsky of Hampton Falls, N.H.; a sister, Eleanor Van Leuwen of The Hague, Holland, and two grandchildren, Rachel and Robbie.

Burial was in Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon, Mass.

Contributions may be made to the Providence Jewish Community Center.