HYMAN B. LASKER

Funeral services were held this week for Hyman B. Lasker, 74, a native of Russia and father of Rabbi Meir Lasker of Havana, Cuba, who died at the Miriam Hospital of bronchial pneumonia.

Mr. Lasker came to Providence from Russia, in 1905. He became a teacher of Hebrew at B'nai Zion School, a position he held for more than thirty years. He was a member of B'nai Zion Synagogue and Brith Sholom Lodge.

He is survived by his wife, Sofia Lasker, five daughters, Mrs. Meir Golob, Mrs. George Chesin and Miss Sarah Lasker of New York; Mrs. Aran Marks and Mrs. Herman Sohn of this city; and four sons, Julius of Boston, Samuel of Newark, Joseph of New Jersey, and Rabbi Meir Lasker. Interment was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.
