Minnie Lazarovich

PROVIDENCE — Minnie Lazarovich, 84, of 117 Radcliffe Ave. died yesterday at Roger Williams General Hospital. She was the widow of Joseph Lazarovich, with whom she was associated in the operation of the Acme Transportation Co. for more than 50 years.

Born in Fall River, a daughter of the late Louis and Jennie (Shindler) Belovitch, she lived in Providence for more than 50 years.

Mrs. Lazarovich was a member of the Congregation Sons of Jacob.

She leaves three sons, Harold Lazarovich of Providence, Leonard Lazarusof Foster and Sheldon H. Lazarus of Providence; three brothers, Charles Belovitch of Worcester, Peter and Isadore Belovitch, both of Fall River, and a sister, Barbara Saide of Holden, Mass.

A funeral service will be held today at noon at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

PSJ 8/16/87 VV

LAZAROVICH, MINNIE