LAZARUS, ANITA

Anita Lazarus, 94

HOLLYWOOD, FLA. – Anita Lazarus passed away on March 4 in Hollywood Fla. She was the beloved wife of Herman Lazarus. Born in Providence on Aug. 25, 1920, a daughter of the late Martin and Ida Golden; the sister of Florence Golden and the late Harvey Golden. She was the mother of the late Pauline Brown. She is survived by her son Howard Lazarus and his wife Diane, granddaughters Dr. Stephanie Bernell, Pamela Rickett, Susy Epps; her great-grandchildren; Danielle, Jake, Eli and Miles.

She was a lifelong resident of Providence and, in her later years, of Hollywood, Fla. She was known for her unending kindness and gentle spirit, for being always happy to lend a helping hand to those in need. She loved playing bridge and curling up with a good book; she was loved and adored by all.

Contributions in her memory may be made to the Dwares Jewish Community Center, 401 Elmgrove Ave., Providence, R.I. 02906.
