Rose Lazarus

WOONSOCKET — Rose Lazarus, 87, formerly of Harris Avenue, a bookkeeper for the former Ward Motors Inc. for many years before retiring, died yesterday at Woonsocket Hospital. She was the widow of Hyman G. Lazarus.

Born in Providence, she was a daughter of the late Nathan and Gertrude (Katz) Odesky. She lived in Woonsocket for many years.

Mrs. Lazarus also had been an executive secretary for the RKO Co. in New York City before her marriage. She was treasurer of the B'nai Israel Sisterhood, and later its honorary treasurer. She was a member of Hadassah, the Jewish Home for the Aged, Providence, and the Woonsocket Hospital Aid Association.

She leaves a stepbrother, William Odesky of Cranston.

The funeral service was to be held today at 10:30 a.m. at B'nai Israel Synagogue, Prospect Street. Burial was to be in B'nai Israel Cemetery.
