SHELDON LAZARUS, 73, of Radcliffe Avenue, a retired moving company owner, died Saturday at Rhode Island Hospital.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Joseph and Minnie (Belovitch) Lazarovich, he was a lifelong resident of the city.

Mr. Lazarus was the co-owner of the former Acme Transportation and Moving Co., retiring in 1986. He then became a school bus driver for special needs children in the Providence school system.

He was a graduate of Hope High School.

Mr. Lazarus rode his bicycle at least 20 miles every day, and once rode to New Hampshire. He could often be seen cycling on Ocean Drive in Newport.

He was a member of Congregation Sons of Jacob Synagogue and its Morning Minyan Group for more than 20 years.

He leaves several cousins. He was a brother of the late Harold Lazarovich and Leonard Lazarus.

A funeral service will be held today at 11 a.m. in Priest Chapel at Lincoln Park Cemetery, 1469 Post Rd., Warwick.
