LECHT, MORRIS

Obituaries

Morris Lecht

PROVIDENCE — Morris Lecht, 77, a cattle dealer until retiring 12 years ago, died Saturday at the Jewish Home of the Aged. He was the husband of the late Lillian (Goldman) Lecht.

Born in Russia, a son of the late Harry and Sarah (Finkle) Lecht, he lived in Providence for more than 70 years.

Mr. Lecht was a member of the Congregation Sons of Jacob, the Providence Hebrew Day School and the Chevra Kadisha Society.

He leaves three sons, Daniel Lecht of Warwick, Dr. Leon Leach of Belmont, Mass., and Charles Lecht of Greenwich, Conn.; two brothers, Samuel Lecht in Massachusetts and Leonard Lecht in New York City; five sisters, Mrs. Sophie Golin of Cranston, Blanche Licht of Providence, Mrs. Elsie Koret of Rochester, N.Y., Esther Lecht of Barrington and Mrs. Goldie Marinsky of Providence; 11 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

A funeral service was to be held today at noon at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial was to be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.