LEDERER, GEORGE J.

10-9-77

George J. Lederer

Retired owner of Providence jewelry firm, active in Boy Scouts, dies at 97

EAST PROVIDENCE — George J. Lederer, 97, of 108 Allerton Ave. died yesterday at home. He was the husband of Dorothy (Jacobs) Lederer.

Mr. Lederer owned the Providence Stock Co., a jewelry manufacturing firm in the Lederer Building on Stewart Street, Providence, for 50 years before retiring about 20 years ago.

He had been a member of the Manufacturing Jewelers' Association of Rhode Island.

He was one of the oldest living members of Temple Beth-El.

He was active in the Boy Scouts in Greater Providence for many years, and was a member of the Civitan Club, Providence.

He was born in Chicago March 24, 1880, and lived in the Providence area for more than 70 years.

His wife is his only immediate survivor.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Temple Beth-El Cemetery, Reservoir Avenue, Providence.