Irving Lederer Funeral to Be Held Tomorrow

The funeral of Irving R. Lederer of 246 Lenox Avenue, Providence jewelry manufacturer and real estate owner, will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the Max Sugarman Funeral Home, 458 Hope Street. Mr. Lederer died yesterday at Jane Brown Hospital after a short illness.

He was assistant treasurer of the S & B Lederer Co. and part owner of the Providence Stock Co., two jewelry firms. In addition, he was an officer of the Lederer Realty

Corp. of 100 Stewart Street, which held ownership of the Lederer Building at 139 Mathewson Street, a downtown business building.

He had traveled widely in the interests of the jewelry firms and had spent considerable time in New York on business.

A son of Benedict B. and Theresa (Waldheimer) Lederer, he had been affiliated with the jewelry business for the past half century.

Mr. Lederer was a member of the Tall Cedars of Lebanon, Providence Forest, No. 91; Providence Royal Arch Chapter, No. 1; Centennial Lodge, No. 763, F. & A. M.; Mecca Temple, A.A.O.N.M.S.; The Consistory of New York City, 32nd degree Mason, and the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite, all of New York City.

In addition he was a member of
