PJ-B 4-28-91

Clara Siperstein-Lerner

PROVIDENCE — Clara Siperstein-Lerner, of 82 Third St., died Thursday at home. She was the widow of the late David Lerner and the late Harry Siperstein.

Born in Russia, a daughter of the late Solomon and Gertrude Bernstein, she had lived in Providence over 50 years.

Mrs. Siperstein-Lerner was a member of the Jewish Community Center, Temple Mishkon T'filoh and the Jewish Home for the Aged Women's Association.

She leaves a son, S. Harry Siperstein of Narragansett; a daughter, Laura Swartz of Providence; a sister, Rae Pickar of Providence; 4 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow at noon at Sugarman-Smith Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

LERNER-SIPERSTEIN, Clara (Bernstein)

April 25, 1991. Residence 82 Third St., Providence. Beloved wife of the late David Lerner and the late Harry Siperstein. Devoted mother of S. Harry Siperstein, Narragansett and Laura Swartz, Providence. Dear sister of Rae Pickar, Providence. Loving grandmother of 4 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren. Funeral Services Sunday, 12 Noon at the SUGARMAN-SMITH MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St. (corner of Doyle Ave.) In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to VNA Hospice, 157 Waterman St., Providence 02906. Shiva will be observed at her late residence Sunday 7-9 and Monday 2-4 and 7-9 pm.

S1

LERNER,
Clara Siperstein