PETER LERNER, 64, of Beverage Hill Avenue, a retired chemist, died Friday at Philip Hulitar Inpatient Center, Providence.

Born in Romania, a son of the late Abraham and Rose (Kaufman) Lerner, he had lived in Venezuela before moving to this country 1956, and had lived in Attleboro before moving to Pawtucket in 1999.

Mr. Lerner had been a chemist in the textile industry for many years, and was the holder of two patents. He was a graduate of Louisiana State University with a bachelor's degree in chemistry.

He became a U.S. citizen in 1976.

Mr. Lerner was associated with Congregation Agudas Achim, in Attleboro, where he volunteered in activities, and also volunteered at a community food bank.

He leaves two sons, Lawrence Liss of Washington, D.C., and Edmund John Lerner of North Attleboro; two daughters, Maureen Birnbaum of Potomac, Md., and Elisa Lovelace of Greensboro, N.C.; a brother, Harry Lerner, and a sister, Esther Lerner, both of Caracas, Venezuela; and five grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held today at 2 p.m. in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Dodgeville Cemetery, Attleboro.
