Harry Leven

PROVIDENCE — Harry Leven, 80, of 38 Luzon Ave. died yesterday at his winter residence in Palm Beach, Fla. He was the husband of Josephine (Auerbach) Leven.

He was born in Central Falls, a son of the late Samuel and Sarah Leven. He was a Providence resident most of his life.

Forty years ago, Mr. Leven and his late brother, George, founded Major Electric and Supply Co., 123 High St., Pawtucket.

He was a member of the board of trustees of the Jewish Home For the Aged, a member of Temple Emanu-El and its Men's Club, a life member of the Barney Merry Lodge, F&AM; a member of Ledgemont Country Club, and a contributing member of Miriam Hospital, Brandeis University and the Jimmy Fund.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, David E. Leven of Providence; a sister, Ida Robin of New Jersey, two grandchildren and a great-granddaughter.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. in Temple Emanue-El, Morris Avenue at Sessions Street. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
