Rebecca Levenson

Rebecca F. Levenson of the Jewish Home of Providence, R.I., died on Nov. 23. She was the widow of Abraham B. Levenson.

Born in Somerville, she was a daughter of late Lewis and Sophie Warshaw of Quincy, who owned and operated the Warshaw Dyeing Company. She a valedictorian of the Quincy High School, class of 1908.

Rebecca "Bay" Levenson was a navy veteran of World War I, serving as a Yeoman at Portsmouth, N.H. She was a member of Temple Beth Sholom of Providence.

She was a sister of the late Jay, Joseph, Allen and Nathaniel Warshaw and Fannie Stone, Grace Cohen, Agnes Bornstein and Clara Szehner. she leaves a daughter, Edith F. Rugg of Needham and two granddaughters, Lisa and Carol.