ABRAHAM M. LEVIN, 84, Southwest 24th Street, North Lauderdale, Fla., formerly of Pawtucket, retired co-owner of Biltmore Furniture in Pawtucket, died Sunday at home.

He was the husband of Anita (Brill) Levin. Born in Providence, a son of the late Frank and Celia (Rifkin) Levin, he had lived in Pawtucket for 30 years, moving to North Lauderdale 15 years ago.

Mr. Levin was a co-owner, with his brother Morris Levin, of the Biltmore Furniture Store, retiring in 1976.

He attended the University of Rhode Island.

Mr. Levin was an Army veteran of World War II, where he taught aviation recognition.

He was a sculptor, reader, and opera lover.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Mitchell Levin of Narragansett and Harold Levin of Parkland, Fla.; a daughter, Susan Hickman of Jeffersonville, Vt.; a sister, Sophie Waitsman of Providence and Florida; and six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Morris Levin and Marion Feldman.

Burial will be in Florida.
