LEVIN, ALBERT

PSJ 12-28-03

Providence

ALBERT LEVIN, 84, of Branford, Conn., formerly of Providence, a former pharmacist and chemist who volunteered in his later years by playing piano to hospice patients, died Friday at home.

He was the husband of Hannah (Andiman) Levin, and the late Edith E. (Cohen) Levin. He was a son of the late Samuel and Rebecca (Fradin) Levin.

Born and raised in Providence, he graduated from the University of Rhode Island College of Pharmacy.

He was a pharmacist and chemist until his retirement in 1984. At that time, he began playing piano for the patients at the Connecticut Hospice in Branford, where he had been a pharmacist.

He was a lifelong member of the Touro Fraternal Association.

He leaves a son, Kenneth Levin of Danielson, Conn.; two stepsons, Warren Andiman of Guilford, Conn., and Ronald Andiman of Los Angeles; six grandchildren; and a niece. He was the brother of the late Milton Levin.

The funeral service will be held today at 2 p.m. in Robert E. Shure Funeral Home, 543 George St., New Haven, Conn. A burial service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

LEVIN, Albert

Age 84, of 5 Yorkshire Lane, Branford, CT died at his home on Friday, December 26, 2003. Son of the late Samuel and Rebecca (Fradin) Levin. He was predeceased by his first wife, Edith E. (Cohen) Levin, and a brother, Milton Levin. He is survived by his wife Hannah (Andiman) Levin of Branford and a son, Kenneth Levin of Danielson, CT; two step-sons, Warren Andiman of Guilford, CT and Ronald Andiman of Los Angeles, CA; his loving grandchildren Meredith and Joshua Levin, Sarah, Alexis, Abigail, Susannah and Judith Andiman. He was a loving uncle of Linda Zelden of West Hills, CA. Funeral services at the Robert E. Shure Funeral Home, 543 George St., New Haven, CT, Sunday at 2 pm. Interment services will be held on Monday morning at 11 am at the Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick, RI. Memorial contributions may be sent to CT Hospice, 100 Double Beach, Rd., Branford, CT 06405.