Benjamin Levin

PROVIDENCE — Benjamin B.Levin, 72, of 164 Butler Ave., husband of Lillian (Loeber) Levin, died yesterday in Miriam Hospital.

He retired in 1974 as executive personnel manager for Grace Holmes, Inc., a Providence-based mail order firm. Since retiring, he was an active volunteer of the Rhode Island Cancer Society, Miriam Hospital and Butler Hospital.

Born April 15, 1904, in Russia, a son of the late Morris and Elizabeth (Spitz) Levin, he had lived in Rhode Island since he was two years old.

He was a Providence College graduate and attended Boston University and Tufts Dental School.

Mr. Levin was a member of Temple Beth-El, B'nai B'rith, Roosevelt Lodge, F. & A.M., the Jewish Home for the Aged and Miriam Hospital.

Besides his wife, survivors are two sons, Arthur D. Levin of Washington, D.C., a member of the staff of the Senate Committee on Appropriations, and Paul Levin of Marlborough, Mass.; two sisters, Mrs. Rose Lazarus of Providence and Mrs. Gertrude Pullman of Dallas, and two grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Temple Beth-El, Orchard Street. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

LEVIN, BENJAMIN
