The Evening Bulletin, Tuesday, March 4, 1980

OBITUARIES

Benjamin Levin

PROVIDENCE — Benjamin Levin, 84, a resident-member of the Jewish Home for the Aged, 99 Hillside Ave., and formerly of Taft Avenue, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital, after a three-week illness. He was the widower of Flora (Shechtman) Levin.

Mr. Levin was a carpenter for several local firms for 40 years.

His memberships included Temple Emanu-El, Workman's Circle No. 251, and Congregation Sons of Jacob.

Born in Russia, and a Providence resident since he was about 14, he was a son of the late Isaac and Sarah (Cohen) Levin. He leaves a son, Leonard M. Levin of Providence; a daughter, Mrs. Ethel M. Bogdan of Lexington, Mass.; and five grandchildren.

The funeral will be held today at 2 p.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

LEVIN, BENJAMIN