Providence

LEONARD M. LEVIN, 80, of Centerville, Mass., and Naples, Fla., formerly of Providence, a retired certified public accountant, died yesterday at home.

He was the husband of Eunice (Kaze) Levin. Born in Providence on Nov. 27, 1922, a son of the late Benjamin and Flore (Schechtman) Levin, he had lived in the city before moving to Centerville and Naples in 1992.

Mr. Levin received his accounting and business degrees from Bryant College, and had worked as a certified public accountant in Providence for many years before retiring in 1992. He was a member of the American Institute of CPAs and the Florida Institute of CPAs.

He had been a member of Temple Emanuel, in Providence, and the Anshei Chesed of Cape Cod. Also a member of the Masonic fraternity, he received a 50-year presentation from the Grand Lodge of Masons in Rhode Island.

He was an Army Air Forces veteran of World War II and a member of the Jewish War Veterans.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Richard Levin of Waban, Mass., and Robert Levin of Bloomfield Hills, Mich.; a sister, Ethel Bogdan of Lexington, Mass.; and four grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in Temple Emanuel. Burial will be in Falmouth (Mass.) Jewish Cemetery.
