Other obituaries on Pages C-13, 14, 15 OBITU

Max Levin; lawyer in R.I. for 50 years

DEL RAY BEACH, Fla. — Max Levin, 88, of Piedmont Street, a lawyer in Rhode Island for 50 years, died Thursday at the Tamarac University Hospital, Tamarac. He was the husband of the late Rose (Foxman) Levin. He was also the husband of the late Minna (Dorn) Levin.

Born in Belaya Zerkov, the Ukraine, a son of the late Ida Datz, he lived in Newport for 15 years, and in Providence for 20 years before moving to Florida in 1980.

Mr. Levin was a graduate of Brown University in 1923 and Harvard Law School in 1926. He practiced with the firm of Kirshenbaum & Kirshenbaum, Providence, for 10 years before opening his office.

He was elected to the Rhode Island House of Representatives for one term in 1952 from Newport. He was president of the Touro Fraternal Organization and served on its board of directors for New England. He was on the board of directors of the Providence Fraternal Organization. He was president of his synogogue . He was a past deputy grand chancelor, Knights of Pythias.

He was a well-known divorce lawyer and conducted courses for lawyers and judges for the Rhode Island Bar Association. He was an honorary member of the Rhode Island Bar Association. In Florida, he was a member of the board of directors of Temple Emeth.

He leaves three sons, Norman and Harvey Levin ; a daughter, Adele Levin Pevzner of Duxbury, Mass., and five grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held Tuesday 7:30 p.m. at The Neptune Society, 401 W. Prospect Rd., Fort Lauderdale.

LEVIN, MAY 1989