OBITUARIES

The Evening Bulletin, Wednesday, April 11, 1979

Minna Levin

PROVIDENCE — Mrs. Minna Levin, 70, of Regency East, 1 Jackson Walkway, died yesterday at Rhode Island Hospital after an illness. She was the wife of Max Levin.

She was a member of Congregation Shaare Zedek.

During World War II she was in charge of the U.S.O. in Little Rock, Ark. She previously was employed at the Providence Jewish Community Center, and had served as assistant to Jack Cronin, then director of the Recreation Department of the city of Providence, for four years.

Mrs. Levin was corresponding secretary for the Providence Chapter of Haddassah.

Born in Brockton, Mass., on July 19, 1908, a daughter of the late Joseph and Olga Dorn.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two sons, Norman Levin of Florida and Harvey P. Levin of East Providence; a daughter, Mrs Adele Pevzner of Ducksbury, Mass., and five grandchildren.

The funeral was to be held today at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial was to be at the Pride of Brockton Cemetery, Stoughton, Mass.

LEVIN, MINNA