LEVIN, NORMAN

WARWICK

LEVIN, NORMAN I.

80, of Warwick, died Wednesday, August 6, 2014, at West Shore Health Center. He was the beloved husband of Sylvia (Indyk) Levin for 54 years. Born in Providence, a son of the late Charles and Mildred (Aptel) Levin, he had lived in Warwick for 53 years.

Norman was a quality assurance engineer for American Insulated Wire for 39 years and, later, was a fire inspector, retiring 18 years ago. He was a Korean Conflict Navy veteran serving in the Pacific Theater. Norman was a special officer for the Warwick Police Department for 20 years and was a fire chief for the Oaklawn Volunteer Fire Department. He was a former member of Temple Am David.

Devoted father of Harvey Levin and his wife Karen of Saunderstown, Cheryl Glick and her husband Stanley of Cranston and Mitchell Levin and his wife Susan of Warwick. Loving grandfather of Kyle, Kathryn, Meredith, Rebecca, Collin and Christopher. Funeral services will be held Friday (TODAY), at 10:30 a.m. in SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Avenue, Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to the American Diabetes Association or your favorite charity. Shiva will be observed at the home of Cheryl and Stanley Glick, 29 Brookview Drive, Cranston, Sunday and Monday, 2-4 & 7-9 p.m. For online condolences, go to ShalomMemorialChapel.com.

The family would like to thank the entire staff of West Shore Health Center and Fresenius Dialysis Center on Post Road for their kindness over the past few years.
