Sarah Levin

Mrs. Jacob Levin

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah (Dubrow) Levin, 74, of 57 Beachmont Ave., Cranston, were held at 3:30 p.m. yesterday in the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel in Providence. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

Mrs. Levin died Saturday. She was the widow of Jacob Levin.

Born in Poland, a daughter of the late Abraham and Ida Dubrow, she lived in Providence for 55 years before moving to Cranston in 1964.

She was a member of Congregation Sons of Jacob; Pioneer Women; Jewish Home for the Aged; Jewish War Veterans, Ladies Auxiliary, Leonard Bloom Post No. 284 and the Workmen's Circle.

She is survived by two sons, Irving H. Levin of Cranston and Arthur H. Levin of Chelmsford, Mass.; two daughters, Mrs. Nathan Millman of Cranston and Mrs. Leonard Baron of San Diego, Calif., and 10 grandchildren.

July 21, 1969