LEVINE,
HYMAN H.

PJ 2-10-03

Smithfield

HYMAN H. LEVINE, 91, of Putnam Pike, a retired businessman, died yesterday at Our Lady of Fatima Hospital, North Providence.

He was the husband of the late Irene (Walker) Levine. They had been married for more than 65 years. Born in Providence, a son of the late Morris and Minnie (Tolchinsky) Levine, he had lived most of his life in Providence before moving to Smithfield in October 2001.

Mr. Levine was the founder of the former Hudson Cold Storage and Hudson Cleaning Co., which later became Hudson Services, which he owned from 1939 until he retired in 1975.

He was a founding member of Crestwood Country Club, and formerly was a member of Temple Emanuel for 25 years. He was a member of Redwood Lodge 35, F&AM, the Providence Fraternal Association, and a 32nd-degree Mason with the Palestine Shrine.

He leaves a son, Norman E. Levine of Coventry; two brothers, Samuel and Abraham Levine, both of Cranston; and three granddaughters and six great-grandchildren. He was the father of the late David Levine, and brother of the late Matthew Levine and Nellie Moseff.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
