Jason Z. Levine, 87

SINGER ISLAND, Fla. – Jason Levine died Dec. 26 in Florida. He is survived by his wife Rosalind (Levitt) Levine, his children, Dr. Mark Levine (Lisa), Dr. Richard Levine (Susan), and Diane Yermack (Larry), and six grandchildren. He also leaves his brother, George Levine, and his sister, Doris Fisher.

Born in Woonsocket, a son of the late Robert Levine and Rebecca (Eisenberg) Levine, he lived there for 60 years. He had served as a president of Congregation B'nai Israel in Woonsocket and worked with many other charitable organizations.

He was president of Roberts, Inc., a chain of children's clothing shops in Rhode Island, and a president of the Youth Fashion Guild in New York. He retired in 1981 and started a new career as a computer consultant.

Contributions in his memory may be sent to MAZON, 1990 South Bundy Drive Los Angeles, Calif. 90025 or The Sky Train, 41 Madison Ave., New York, N.Y. 10010
