LEVINE, MATTHEW

Smithfield

MATTHEW LEVINE, 82, of 16 Sunset Drive, a retired building contractor, hobbyist and real-estate broker, died Saturday at home.

He was the husband of Olive E. (Wiberg) Levine. They were married for 63 years. Born in Providence, a son of the late Morris and Minnie (Tolchinsky) Levine, he had lived in Smithfield for 32 years, previously living in Lincoln.

Mr. Levine was a building contractor for 25 years, the owner of the former United Hobby Shop, and a real-estate broker.

He was a member of Harmony Lodge 9, AF&AM, and the Elks Lodge of Smithfield.

Mr. Levine was a benefactor of Rhode Island Hospital, donating his time and money to special children's programs.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, David Levine of Smithfield; a daughter, Sheila Lee Aiello of Palm Bay, Fla.; three brothers, Hyman Levine of Providence, and Samuel and Abraham Levine, both of Cranston; and eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Nellie Moseff.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at noon in Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
