Samuel Levine, 70, Fatally Burned

In an attempt to extinguish an oil blaze caused when a range burner overflowed, Samuel Levine, 70, of 151 Orms street, was fatally burned last Monday night. Removed to Miriam Hospital, after police discovered him with his clothes afire, he was pronounced critically ill and later that night died.

The Jewish Herald

Mar 18, 1938

LEVINE

Samuel