Dorothy Levinson

CRANSTON — Dorothy Levinson, 87, of 49 Garden City Drive, died at Miriam Hospital, Providence, yesterday. She was the widow of Everett Zlochin and Sydney Levinson.

She was born in Newport, a daughter of the late Isaac and Ida (Billard) Brynes. She lived in Providence for 70 years until moving to Cranston 10 years ago.

During World War I she was a Yeomanette in the Navy in Newport and was a member of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Jewish War Veterans Post 23. She was a life member of Temple Emanu-El.

She leaves two daughters, Gloria Levenson and Beverly Aron, both of Cranston; four grandchildren and a great-grandson.

The graveside funeral service was to be today in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
