EB 10-28-80

OBITUARIES

Harriet Levy

PROVIDENCE — Harriet Dimond Levy, 82, of 60 Broadway, died today at home. She was the widow of Arthur J. Levy, a former Providence attorney.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Rachel Dimond, she was employed by the Bulova Watch Co. of New York at their subsidiary, the American Standard Watch Case Co. of Providence, where she was treasurer until she retired.

A past president of the Women's Advertising Club and past president of the Providence Chapter of the Women's Division of Brandeis University, she was a member of the latter's national board.

She was a member of Temple Beth-El and its Sisterhood; a member of the Board of the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island; a member of the Ledgemont Country Club, as well as other cultural and civic organizations.

She is survived by a sister, Muriel Krasnoff of Providence.

The funeral service will be held Thursday at noon in Temple Beth-El, 70 Orchard Ave. Burial will be in Sons of Israel and David Cemetery.

LEVY, HARRIET