LEWINSTEIN, HELEN "JUDY"

HELEN "JUDY" LEWINSTEIN, 87, of Delray Beach, Fla., a retired teacher, died Friday at Delray Medical Center.

She was the wife of the late David Lewinstein. Born in Mount Vernon, N.Y., a daughter of the late David and Sadie (Bluestein) Lapatin, she had lived in Pawtucket before moving to Florida in 1987, while she remained a summer resident of Rhode Island.

Mrs. Lewinstein had been a school teacher in the Central Falls school system and was later a substitute teacher in the Pawtucket school system. She had also taught Sunday school at Ohawe Shalom Synagogue for many years.

She had been a volunteer at Providence Hebrew Day School, teaching reading to Israeli and Russian students. She was also a Gray Lady at Butler Hospital.

She was a graduate of Rhode Island College of Education, now Rhode Island College, Class of 1937.

She was a member of Hadassah, the Palm Gardens Woman's Association, and Palm Gardens Solo Club.

She enjoyed playing bridge, and was an amateur oil painter.

She leaves a son, Stephen Richard Lewinstein of Rhode Island and Palm Beach, Fla.; a daughter, Marsha Lee Lewinstein of Boston; a grandson; and several nieces and nephews. She was the sister of the late Joseph and Samuel Lapatin.

The funeral service will be held Tuesday at 1 p.m. in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
