EB 5-10-82

Obituaries

Shirley B. Lewis

Active in the Jewish community, Miriam, Butler Hospital groups

PROVIDENCE — Shirley B. Lewis, 55, of 486 Wayland Ave., a consultant for Fine Travel for the last three years, died today at Miriam Hospital after an illness. She was the wife of Howard Lewis.

She was a graduate of Brown University in 1948, and also attended the Mary Burnham School in Northhampton, Mass. She was past president and life member of the Miriam Hospital Women's Association, a member of the board of trustees of Miriam Hospital and past president and member of the Brandies University National Women's Committee.

Mrs. Lewis was a member of Temple Emanu-el and its sisterhood, a life member and past secretary of the Jewish Home for the Aged, a member of ORT, a member of the National Council of Jewish Women and a past board member at Bradley Hospital. She also was a member of the Butler Hospital Women's Committee, an associate member of the Rhode Island School of Design Museum, and a past president of the Jewish Parents Council.

Born in Providence, a daughter of Benjamin Brier and the late Florence (Genensky) Brier, she was a lifelong resident.

Besides her husband and father, she is survived by two sons, Peter B. Lewis of New York City and David C. Lewis of Boston; two daughters, Nancy F. Lewis and Deborah R. Lewis, both of Boston; one brother, Milton I. Brier of Narragansett, and one sister, Dorothy A. Brier of New York City.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 1 p.m. at Temple Emanu-el, Morris Avenue and Sessions Street, Providence. Interment will be Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

LEWIS, SHIRLEY B.