Paul Lincoln

Owner of Paul's Sandwich Shop in Pawtucket for over 20 years

PAWTUCKET — Paul Lincoln, 64, of 150 Dartmouth St., died yesterday at Pawtucket Memorial Hospital. He was the husband of Shirley (Greenberg) Lincoln.

Born in Fall River, a son of the late Charles and Anna (Bloom) Lincoln, he had been a resident of Pawtucket for the past 40 years.

Mr. Lincoln was a World War II Army veteran, serving in the Philippine Islands.

He owned Paul's Sandwich Shop, located in Pawtucket on Summer Street, for over 20 years, retiring 10 years ago. He was a member of Jencks Lodge F&AM.

Besides his wife, he leaves two daughters, Roberta Levin of Pawtucket, and Debbie Fitzpatrick of Wallingford, Conn.; a sister, Marion Lincoln of Fall River; and a grandson.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 12:30 p.m. in Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Hebrew Cemetery, Fish Road, Fall River.

LINCOLN, PAUL
