LINDENFELD, Saul

9-27-1996 PJ-B

SAUL LINDENFELD, 44, of 118 Sheldon St., an executive of New Metal Box Co., Woonsocket, and previously a restaurateur, operating Cafe At Brooke's for 15 years, died yesterday at home.

Born in Pasaic, N.J., he was a son of the late Abraham and Bessie (Flug) Lindenfeld. He had lived in Providence since 1976.

He leaves two brothers, Jack and Nathan Lindenfeld, both of Providence.

The funeral service will be held today at 3 p.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

LINDENFELD, Saul

September 26, 1996. Residence: 118 Sheldon St, Providence. Beloved brother of Jack Lindenfeld and Nathan Lindenfeld, both of Providence. Funeral services Friday at 3:00pm at the MAX SUGARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St. (Corner of Doyle Ave.) Providence. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to RI Heart Fund or Diabetes Assn. Due to Sukkot, there will be no Shiva. However, the family will be at the home of Jack Lindenfeld, 123 Brook Street, Providence: Sunday 7-9pm.