Obituaries

Abraham Linder

PROVIDENCE — Abraham Linder, 100, of 11 Exeter St., a former salesman for Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., died today at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of the late Fannie (Breiter) Linder.

A salesman for 30 years, he retired more than 30 years ago. He was a founder, past president and honorary president of Congregation Mishkon Tfiloh. Mr. Linder was also a member of Temple Emanu-El Mens Club; Touro Fraternal Association; the Jewish Home for the Aged; the Miriam Hospital; Chesed Shel Emes Association; Waad Hacashruth; the Providence Hebrew Day School and the Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association.

He was born in Austria, a son of the late Morris and Hanna Linder and lived in Providence for more than 80 years.

He is survived by four daughters, Stella F. Linder of Los Angeles, Calif.; Mrs. Rose Schneider of East Providence, Ida Linder of New York City and Mrs. Anne Krakowsky of Providence; two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be held Sunday at noon at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

LINDER, ABRAHAM