David A. Linder

PROVIDENCE — David A. Linder, 72, of 19 Lorraine Ave., a retired businessman, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital after an eight-week illness. He was the husband of Edith A. (Brown) Linder.

A lifelong resident of Providence, he was a son of the late Lipa and Rebecca (Cohn) Linder.

Mr. Linder was the president of the former Linder Furniture Co., 996 Chalkstone Ave., for many years, retiring two years ago.

He was a member of Temple Emanu-El and the temple's Men's Club, the Roger Williams Lodge of B'nai B'rith, the Touro Fraternal Association, and Redwood Lodge No. 35 AF&AM. He was the chairman of the Membership Committee and a vice president of Crestwood Country Club. He was the first president and a founder of the R.I. Furniture Dealers Association.

Besides his wife, he leaves two daughters, Mrs. Elaine Glick of Cranston, and Mrs. Sara Miller of Providence; a brother, Nathan Linder of Lauderhill, Fla.; a sister, Mrs. Jessie Weiner of Tamarac, Fla., and three grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held today at 1 p.m. at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue at Sessions Street. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

LINDER, DAVID A.
