LIPSON, Esta

PJB 8-1996

Cranston

ESTA SARAH LIPSON, 83, of Mission Veijo, Calif., formerly of Cranston, died Aug. 6 in Mission Hospital, Mission Veijo. She was the wife of Nathan Lipson.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Philip and Rose (Sass) Blumenthal, she lived most of her life in Providence and Cranston until moving to California seven years ago.

She graduated from Hope High School in 1932. She was a member of Crestwood Country Club, Temple Beth El, Temple Torat Yisrael, Jewish Home for the Aged and the Cranston-Warwick Chapter of Hadassah.

Besides her husband, she leaves a daughter, Ruth Levin of West Warwick; two sons, Dr. Melvin Lipson of Newport Beach, Calif., and Dr. David Lipson of Lutherville, Md.; a brother, Herman Blumenthal of Warwick; a sister, Belle Klasky of Swampsott, Mass., and eight grandchildren. She was sister of the late Etta Halpert and Marion Brown and Reuben, Lewis and Barney Blumenthal.

Funeral services were held on Aug. 9 in Newport Beach, California.