LISKER, Abraham

PJ 3-14-2002

East Providence

ABRAHAM L. LISKER, 91, of Argyle Avenue, founder of the Jonette Jewelry Mfg. Co., died Wednesday at Philip Hulitar Inpatient Center, Providence.

He was the husband of Geraldine (Gordon) Lisker. Born in Providence, a son of the late John and Etta (Lisker) Lisker, he had lived in East Providence for 14 years, and wintered in Boca Raton, Fla., for 36 years.

He founded Jonette Jewelry in 1937 and had supervised daily operations until 1972. He had maintained involvement in the business until his recent illness.

He was an Army veteran of World War II.

Mr. Lisker was a Brown University graduate, Class of 1933, receiving a bachelor of science degree. He also graduated from Classical High School, Providence, Class of 1929.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, B. Gordon Lisker of Providence and David B. Lisker of Barrington; two sisters, Frieda Corris and Rose Flink, both of Providence; and two grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Albert, Hyman and Nathan Lisker.

A graveside service was held in Temple Beth-El Cemetery, Providence.

CORRECTED COPY

PJ 3-14-2002

ABRAHAM L. LISKER, 91, of Argyle Avenue, the owner of the Jonette Jewelry Mfg. Co., died yesterday in Philip Hulitar Inpatient Center, Providence.

He was the husband of Geraldine (Gordon) Lisker. Born in Providence, a son of the late John and Etta (Lisker) Lisker, he had lived in East Providence for 14 years, and wintered in Boca Raton, Fla., for 36 years.

Mr. Lisker founded, and was the owner of Jonette Jewelry Mfg. Co., supervising daily operations for 35 years and maintaining involvement in the business until recently.

He was a graduate of Classical High School, Class of 1929, Providence, and Brown University, Class of 1933.

He was an Army veteran of World War II.

He leaves two sons, B. Gordon Lisker of Providence and David B. Lisker of Barrington; two sisters, Frieda Corris and Rose Fink, both of Providence; and two grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Albert, Hyman and Nathan Lisker.

The graveside service will be private. Burial will follow in Temple Beth-El Cemetery, Providence.