The Evening Bulletin, Monday, September 19, 1983

Obituaries

Ethel Lisker

ROYAL PALM BEACH, Fla. — Ethel Lisker, 69, of Greenway Village North died yesterday at the Regency Apartments, Providence. She was the wife of Albert Lisker.

Born in Buffalo, N.Y., a daughter of the late Bernhard and Mollie (Lampert) Gordon, she lived in Providence for 35 years before moving to Florida five years ago.

Mrs. Lisker spent her early life in Haverhill, Mass. She was a graduate of Simmons College, Boston, and was a stenographer for the Massachusetts Superior Court in Boston.

She was a member of Temple Beth El and its Sisterhood, Providence, the Hadassah, the Rhode Island Council of Jewish Women, the Ladies Association of the Jewish Home for the Aged and Temple Beth El, West Palm Beach.

Besides her husband she leaves two daughters, Mrs. Gail Levy of Denver and Mrs. Barbara Zucker of Charleston, S.C.; a son, Dr. Bernhard Lisker of Danbury, Conn.; two sisters, Mrs. Miriam Kesslen of Haverhill and Mrs. Geraldine Lisker of Boca Raton; a brother, David Gordon of Haverhill, and three grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held today at 2 p.m. at Temple Beth El, Orchard Avenue. Burial will be in Congregation Sons of Israel and David Cemetery, Providence.

LISKER, Ethel