Hyman Lisker

SARASOTA, Fla. — Hyman Lisker, 74, of Longboat Key, a lawyer and an assistant attorney general in Rhode Island in 1936-38 and 1940-41, died yesterday at 270 Laurel Ave., a home he maintained in Providence. He was the husband of Lilyan (Terry) Davis Lisker.

A 1925 graduate of Classical High School, where he was New England and Providence boys' tennis champion, he was a 1929 graduate of Brown University, and played varsity tennis there. He earned his law degree at Harvard Law School in 1932. In 1979, he was chief marshal of the Brown University Medical School commencement.

Mr. Lisker was a member of the Providence law firm of Lisker, Sullivan & Lisker. He was a past president of the Jonette Jewelry Co., from which he retired in 1972, and a former director of the Manufacturing Jewelers & Silversmiths of America Inc. He also pursued various real estate interests for many years.

He was a past vice president of B'nai B'rith, and also a member of Temple Beth-El, the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island, the Jewish Home for the Aged, the Ledgemont Country Club, the Longboat Key Country Club and the Brown and Harvard Clubs of Rhode Island.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late John and Etta Lisker.

Besides his wife he leaves two daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Hoffman of Bethesda, Md., and Deborah Lisker of Philadelphia; a son, John Lisker of Newton, Mass.; three brothers, Albert Lisker of Boca West, Abraham Lisker of Royal Palm Beach and Nathan Lisker of Dover, Del.; two sisters, Mrs. Frieda Corris of Delray Beach, Mrs. Rose Flink of Palm Beach, and four grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held in Providence tomorrow at 11:30 a.m. at Temple Beth-El, Orchard Avenue. Burial will be in Congregation Sons of Israel & David Cemetery.
