OBITUARIES

Dr. Stanley Loebenberg

PROVIDENCE — Dr. Stanley T. Loebenberg, D.M.D., 77, of 105 Fosdyke St., a dentist in private practice from 1938 until retiring in 1986, died yesterday at home. He was the husband of Roberta (Barron) Loebenberg.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Theodore and Nannie (Rosenberg) Loebenberg.

Dr. Loebenberg attended the former Rhode Island State College, now the University of Rhode Island. He was graduated from Tufts University Dental School in 1938. He had been on the dental staff of Miriam Hospital for 40 years. He was a member of the Rhode Island Dental Association.

After retirement, he served, until ast week, as a volunteer worker at Miriam Hospital. He was an officer in the Army during World War II.

He was a member of Temple Beth-El, and its Brotherhood. He was an accomplished organist, having played for religious services at the temple when it was located on Broad Street. For many years he was organist for theatrical productions at the temple. He was a Torchbearer member of the Jewish Chautauqua Society.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, Stuart J. Aaronson of Pawtucket; a brother, Richard E. Loebenberg of East Providence, and a granddaughter.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St. Burial will be in Congregation Sons of Israel & David Cemetery.
