LOFSKY, Ralph

RI H E*R* 3-29-63

RALPH C. LOFSKY

Ralph C. Lofsky, 53, president and owner of Lido, Inc., Pawtucket jewelry manufacturing firm, died March 25 at his home, 9 River Street, Cranston. He was the husband of Mrs. Sylvia (Potter) Lofsky.

Mr. Lofsky was an Air Corps veteran of World War II. He had owned the jewelry business about six years.

Born March 13, 1910, in Providence, he was a son of Mrs. Pauline (Foster) Lofsky and the late Isaac Lofsky. He had lived in Cranston 20 years.

In addition to his widow and mother, he leaves a son, Norman Lofsky of Cranston, and a sister, Mrs. Lester Bernstein of Sharon, Mass.

The funeral services were private. Burial was in Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon, Mass.