LOVITT,
Edward

EDWARD LOVITT

SINGER ISLAND, Fla. — Edward "Pat" Lovitt, 79, of 4200 N. Ocean Drive, Tower II, founder of the former Lovitt Beef Co. in Providence and East Providence, and its president for 30 years before retiring in 1978, died Jan. 25 at the Hospice of Palm Beach County, West Palm Beach. He was the husband of Madeline "Pennie" (Simon) Lovitt.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Louis and Lena Lovitt, he lived in Cranston for 13 years before moving to Florida 16 years ago.

Lovitt was a former member of Temple Beth-El. He was a founding member of the Crestwood Country Club, Rehoboth, Mass., and supervised its planning and construction. He was a former member of the Ledgemont and Metacomet Country Clubs.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, Philip Lovitt of Coventry; a stepson, Larry Frank of Cranston; two brothers, Sidney Lovitt of Warwick, George Lovitt of West Warwick, and two grandchildren.

The funeral service was held Jan. 27 at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial was in Congregation Israel and David Cemetery, Providence.

1-28-93
HERALD