OBITUARY

Providence Evening Bulletin, Tuesday, Sept. 2, 1958

—From 1936 Photo

Isador S. Low

Providence Business Leader Dies Suddenly at 58

Isador S. Low, 58, of 309 Doyle Ave., president and treasurer of the Sims Corp., Providence wholesale heating appliance distributors, died suddenly yesterday morning at Rhode Island Hospital.

Mr. Low also was president and treasurer of the Kinsley Burner & Machine Co. and the Low Commercial Co.

Born in New York City on April 14, 1900, he was the son of the late Abraham and Brandei (Gross) Low. As a child, he moved with his parents to Chelsea, Mass., where he attended public schools. He later tok courses in civil engineering at Wentworth Institute in Boston.

In 1920, Mr. Low moved to Providence, where he founded the Low Supply Co., specializing in the sale of heating and plumbing supplies. He was president and treasurer of the company, which at one time had 14 branches in Rhode Island, Connecticut, Massachusetts and Maine. In 1951, Mr. Low gave up this business and organized the Sims Corp.

Mr. Low was a long-time trustee of Temple Beth El and was chairman of its building and maintenance committee. He was co-organizer and treasurer for many years of the Jewish Refugee Service of Rhode Island and was a life member of Redwood Lodge, A.F. and A.M.

Surviving is his wife, Mrs. Cecile (Siden) Low; a son, Theodore Frank Low of Providence, an associate in his business enterprises; two daughters, Mrs. Robert Mann of Canton, Ohio, and Miss Susan Esta Low of Providence, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at Temple Beth El, 70 Orchard Ave. Burial will be in Congregation Sons of Israel and David Cemetery.

LOW, ISADORE S

9-5-58

LOW, Isador

ISADOR S. LOW

Funeral services for Isador S. Low, 58 of 309 Doyle Avenue, president and treasurer of the Sims Corp., Providence wholesale heating appliance distributors, who died suddenly on Monday, were held Wednesday at Temple Beth El. Burial was in the Congregation Sons of Israel and David Cemetery.

Mr. Low was also president and treasurer of the Kinsley Burner & Machine Company and the Low Commercial Company.

Born in New York City in 1900, he was the son of the late Abraham and Brandel (Gross) Low. As a child he moved with his parents to Chelsea, Mass., where he attended public schools. He later took courses in civil engineering at Wentworth Institute in Boston.

In 1920, Mr. Low moved to Providence, where he founded the Low Supply Company, specializing in the sale of heating and plumbing supplies. He was president and treasurer of the company, which at one time had 14 branches in Rhode Island, Connecticut, Massachusetts and Maine. In 1951, Mr. Low gave up this business and organized the Sims Corp.

Mr. Low was a long-time trustee of Temple Beth El and was chairman of its building and maintenance committee. He was co-organizer and treasurer for many years of the Jewish Refugee Service of Rhode Island and was a life member of Redwood Lodge, F.and A. M.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Cecile (Siden) Low; a son, Theodore Frank Low of Providence, an associate in his business enterprises; two daughters, Mrs. Robert Mann of Canton, Ohio, and Miss Susan Esta Low of Providence, and two grandchildren.

* * *