LOZOW, ELAINE

PJ 3-2-2002

ELAINE (RITCH) LOZOW, of 1192 South Broadway, a former sociological interviewer, died Thursday at the Hattie Ide Chaffee Home.

She was the wife of the late S. Sidney Lozow. Born in Providence, the daughter of the late William D. and Sara (Goldsmith) Ritch, she had lived in Gary, Ind., from 1956 to 1971, and had settled in East Providence in 1972.

She attended the University of Chicago.

Mrs. Lozow had worked for the University of Chicago, doing sociological research as a staff interviewer, from 1962 until 1991, when she retired.

She was a member of B'nai Brith, and until recently had worked as a volunteer at Miriam Hospital, in Providence.

She leaves two nephews, Scott A. Ritch of Providence and Steven A. Ritch of Cranston; a niece, Sara Foster of Barrington; a step-grandchild; and three great-nephews. She was the sister of the late Marshall L. Ritch.

A graveside service is planned for tomorrow at 1 p.m. in Lincoln Park, Warwick.
