LUDMAN, SALLY (TOPAL)

PJB 2-20-03

SALLY T. LUDMAN, 74, of Baldino Drive, a retired clerk, died Monday in Roger Williams Medical Center, Providence.

She was the wife of Nathan Ludman; they had been married for 53 years. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Benjamin and Fanny (Millman) Topal, she had lived in Cranston for 46 years.

Mrs. Ludman had been an admissions and records clerk at the Community College of Rhode Island, in Warwick, for 17 years before retiring 9 years ago. She previously had been a dental clerk for the Providence School Department for 14 years.

Besides her husband, she leaves three daughters, Dianne Ludman Frank of Beverly Hills, Mich., Sharon Ludman Exley of Chicago, Ill., and Anita Ludman of Newport; and three granddaughters.

A graveside funeral service will be conducted tomorrow at noon in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road, Warwick.
